

Support Evidence Based Nursing (Clinical Inquiry Series I)

Learn to search the medical & nursing literature using PubMed & CINAHL

Brought to you by the professionals at Burlew Medical Library

2017 classes:

Thurs Mar 9, 10am – 12pm

Thurs July 13, 10am – 12pm

Thurs Nov 16, 10am – 12pm

All classes held in
CR-6B computer lab,
Sr. Francis Dunn Building

Registration available now via HealthStream

Questions? Contact
Danielle Linden at 714-771-8291 or danielle.linden@stjoe.org

Provider approved by the California Board of Registered Nursing Provider Number 00156. Two (2)
Contact Hours will be given for this course.
Administrator of the CE Program is Patti Aube, RN,
MSN. The California LVN Board will accept credits that have been approved by the California BRN.

St. Joseph Hospital
ST. JOSEPH
HEALTH SYSTEM

What: As part of the Clinical Inquiry series of courses, this hands on class will focus on the basics of searching PubMed & CINAHL. Learn to create an effective search strategy using keywords, subject headings, & limits, as well as tips & tricks for each database.

Where: Computer lab — CR-6B in the Sr. Frances Dunn Building

Who: Open to all SJH staff but especially geared toward nurses in support of evidence based practice.

www.BurlewMedicalLibrary.org